

- Geneva, Bank of, 302
Genoa, origin of Bank of St. George at, 10
Genoa, Bank of, origin and political power, 17; unites with National Bank of Sardinia, 18
Germany, exacts war indemnity from France, 50-59; banks of Prussia, 18(M)0; banks of the German states, 190-93; centralizing policy of Prussia, 195-96; adoption of gold standard, 197-98; Bank of Hamburg, 199; unification of banking system, 200-201; the Imperial Bank, 202-205; regulation of local banks, 205-209; cost of war with France, 653; effects of war indemnity, 654; speculation in 1873, 657; failure of mortgage banks in, 705; losses in stock companies, 706
Godfrey, Michael, share in organizing Bank of England, 81; describes business of the bank, 83
Gold, variation from coinage ratio in France, 60; increase of, at Bank of France, 72; relation to paper in England, 102; relation to prices, 106; favored as standard by German cities, 197; adopted as standard in Germany, 198; proportion held by German Bank, 214; recommended as standard in Austria, 235; importations into Austria, 238; proportion in Austro-Hungarian Bank, 242-43; accumulation in Russia in 1895, 261; adopted as standard in Russia, 205; maintenance of, as standard in Holland, 291; exchanges for paper at Bank of the Netherlands, 292; indorsed as standard by Republican convention of 1896, 429; made standard in United States, 432; method of maintaining, as standard in Java, 447; established as standard in Mexico, 491; heavy im-

portations into Mexico in 1906, 495; accumulation in Brazilian Conversion Office, 506; in Conversion Office of the Argentine Republic, 511; in Chile, 515; maintained as standard in Uruguay, 518; required as reserve in Paraguay, 519; chief medium of circulation in Australia, 544; adopted as standard in Japan, 561; exports from Japan from 1898 to 1900, 564; obtained by Japan by loans during war with Russia, 565; adopted as standard in Korea, 568; ratio to silver in India, 577; made legal tender in India, 579; accumulation s of, in Indian gold standard reserve, 582; original standard in Philippines, 585; accepted for certificates in Philippines, 589; proposed as standard in China, 600; withdrawals from England in 1818, 618; new coinage policy in United States, 626; effect of opening American mines, 637; dis- appearance of, in France in 1857, 642; benefits of new supplies in France, 644; pro- duction from 1903 to 1907, 703; effect of increase on prices, 704; imports at New York in 1907, 715; returns rapidly to banks after	panic of 1907, 720 Gold and Silver Commission considers fall in value of silver, 570 Gold exchange standard, adopted by Peru, 520; established in Panama, in 1904, 523; adopted in Ecuador, 524; fundamental principles of, 570; method of operation in Java, 571; steps towards, in British India, 578; comple- tion of system in India, 580; subjected to test of a crisis in India, 583; adopted in Philippines, 587; subject of inquiry in the Straits, 593; adoption of, in the Straits 595; dis-
--	---